(e) if not, how these fake universities would completely be checked?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT (SHRIMATI D. PURANDESWARI): (a) to (e) Yes, Sir. The University Grants Commission (UGC) has so far detected 19 universities/institutions in different parts of the Country, including Uttar Pradesh Viswavidyalaya Kosi Kalan, Mathura, UP, as fake. A list of such fake universities and institutions is at Statement (See below).

The UGC has filed cases in various Courts in respect of some of the identified fake universities/institutions. The UGC puts up the list of such institutions on its website and also issues Press Releases at the beginning of each academic session for wider awareness in the public interest. The Commission cautions aspiring students not to seek admission or deal with fake institutions.

†Orginal notice of the question was received in Hindi.

Further, the UGC has written to concerned State Chief Secretaries and District Superintendent (s) of Police for getting the matter investigated by registering an appropriate complaint/FIR and to initiate prosecution against those who are involved in such acts of defrauding and cheating students by not only miscrepresenting themselves as "Universities" but also by awarding degrees and using the word "University of Vishwavidyalaya" with their names.
